

ALLIANCE FINANCIAL CREDIT UNION IS COMMITTED TO PROTECTING OUR MEMBERS' FINANCIAL PRIVACY. WE HAVE DEVELOPED A MEMBER FINANCIAL DATA PRIVACY POLICY AND STATEMENT TO ADVISE OUR MEMBERS OF OUR COMMITMENT TO FINANCIAL PRIVACY. THE FOLLOWING IS THE RESULT OF OUR PRIVACY POLICY AND STATEMENT. WE VALUE THE TRUST OUR MEMBERS HAVE PLACED IN THE CREDIT UNION AND TAKE ANY MEANS NECESSARY TO PROTECT THAT TRUST.

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE

Categories of Information that we may collect:

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, and income.
- Information about your transactions with our affiliates, others, or us such as: your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions, and debit card usage.
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency, such as your creditworthiness and credit history.

Categories of Information that we may disclose:

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our members or former members to anyone, except as permitted by law. If you decide to terminate your membership or become an inactive member we will adhere to the privacy policies and practices as described in this notice.

Disclosure as permitted by law:

We may disclose all the information we collect, as described above to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

Confidentiality and security:

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information. If you ever have questions or concerns about the integrity of your account information, please contact us.
